

Flexible Payment Plan (FPP)

At Epping Forest College, we want you to achieve your best.

To make things as simple as possible.

To take the worry out of studying (well, at least until your revision begins).

That's why we offer you the chance to spread the payments for your course fees with our Flexible Payment Plan (FPP).

We'll even set up a Direct Debit scheme for you so you don't have to worry about it. Alternatively, you can choose to pay the instalments by credit card.

If the course cost is under £100, then you will have to pay the total upon enrolment. However, the college does offer alternative forms of financial support that you may be able to receive.

If the cost is over £100 and the course lasts less than 12 weeks, the FPP is 50% on enrolment and 50% one month later.

For courses that cost between £100 and £300 lasting more than 12 weeks, the FPP is 25% on enrolment, and then 3 monthly instalments of 25% in October, November and December.

If the cost of your course is over £300 and is for 12 weeks or greater, you can choose to only pay 25% when you enrol, followed by 3 further instalments of 25% in November, January and March.

Course Cost	Percentage of course cost to be paid at enrolment	Remainder of cost to be paid
Under £100	100%	N/A
Over £100 (course less than 12 weeks)	50%	50% one month later
£100 to £300 (course over 12 weeks)	25%	3 instalments of 25% in October, November and December
Over £300 (course over 12 weeks)	25%	3 instalments of 25% in November, January and March
